In Peoria, October is Mystery Month.

A dozen Peoria organizations are sponsoring a free contest in connection with the Nov. 13 talk on of FBI Special Agent Robert K. Wittman, speaking on “Art and International Politics” at 7 p.m., at Lakeview Museum. The contest begins on Oct. 1 and ends of Halloween, Oct, 31, 2008.

To enter the contest, anyone can click on the Peoria Public Library website, www.peoriapubliclibrary.org to download the story, Who Has the Warhol? and the Eleven Questions.

Or they can visit any of the library’s branches to pick up copies of the story and questions. Then they can visit the websites of the groups listed on the Eleven Questions to find clues to the answers. Librarians at the Peoria Public Library can help access the websites for the clues, if necessary.

The answers must be mailed (not e-mailed!) by Oct. 31 to The Peoria Area World Affairs Council, 1501 W. Bradley Avenue, Peoria, IL 61625.

Everyone with the correct answers will be part of a drawing for the grand prize, a gift basket of chocolates, wine, and an art mystery DVD, as well as memberships in the participating organizations, a subscription to art & society magazine and a private dinner party with the speaker, Robert K. Wittman.

The contest is sponsored by the Peoria Area World Affairs Council, Lakeview Museum, Peoria Public Library, Illinois Central College Art Gallery, Apollo Theater, Prairie Center of the Arts, Contemporary Arts Center, ArtsPartners, Fine Arts Society, Peoria Historical Society, Peoria Art Guild and art & society magazine.
