The Contemporary Art Center of Peoria (CAC) Shall:

- Insure the artwork for its declared value from the time of its installation to the time or its removal. Provide minimal hardware for installation of artwork.
- Transact all sales of artwork associated with the exhibit, including the calculation, collection and remittance of all appropriate sales tax.
- Remit to the artist, within 30 days of completion of sale, any and all money due and owing to the artist in association with the sale of any of the exhibited artwork. The commission rate is 30%.
- Distribute press releases to area media, including newspapers, radio and T.V. stations, and other media as may be reasonably and appropriately requested by the artist.
- Provide announcement cards for the artist's exhibit and arrange for the printing and bulk mailing of the announcements to community members, and up to 100 addresses provided by the artist.
- Provide labels and price lists for the artwork.
- Arrange for the duplication and distribution of the artist statements, resumes or other appropriate written material provided by the artist and associated with the exhibit.
- Host an opening reception.

The Artist or Exhibitor Shall:

- Provide a description / price list or insurance value list of pieces being exhibited by attaching it to this agreement if possible, but in no event later than the time of delivery of the work.
- Agree to remit 30% of all sales of artwork displayed in the gallery to the CAC. Direct all sale transactions or inquiries regarding sales to the CAC.
- Direct that all checks for the sale of artwork be made payable to CAC.
- Assist in the installation and removal of the exhibit if needed.
- Provide a representative photograph or digital image of the artwork for reproduction on the announcement cards, and/or other publicity approximately three months prior to the start of the exhibit, or upon request.
- Permit the CAC to photograph, film or tape the artist and any artwork, item or object that is the subject of or associated with the exhibit for the purpose of publicizing or commemorating the exhibit or publicizing CAC's programs.
- Confirm with the CAC staff at least one week in advance of the day on which the installation and deinstallation of the exhibit is to take place. Refrain from removing any of the exhibited artwork from the gallery until after the exhibition period is over.

Meet Glenn Bodish, the judge for awards for the next CIAO group exhibition at the Contemporary Art Center of Peoria.

Originally from Eastern Pennsylvania, Glenn Bodish was awarded his Master of Fine Arts degree in painting from the University of Montana in 1995 and received a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Southern Oregon University in 1992. He has worked as a graphic designer, a commercial illustrator and photographer as well as maintaining a commitment to the development of his work as a fine artist.

Since 1992, Bodish has worked in art museums and held the position as Executive Director for the Butte Silver Bow Arts Foundation from 1997 through 2011. He has taught art in community programs, schools and universities since 1985.

Bodish recently moved from Montana where he and his wife, Beth Smaka, raised their sons, Elijah and Holt, and where he taught art at the University of Montana Western while directing the Historic Clark Chateau Museum & Gallery in Butte.

In 2016, Bodish moved to Illinois to head up the art department and curate art exhibits at Sauk Valley Community College near Dixon. He calls himself a “social sculptor,” with a goal to teach art as a means of human connection.
